Midterm Grades

Robert Criss

Hello folks,

As explained in class today, midterm grades are due to the Registrar before we will have had the chance to complete exam #2. For that reason, I have already calculated & posted your midterm grade to the Canvas grade book. Your midterm score was calculated as a weighted average, with exam #1 being 90% and the HW being 10%. This reflects the exam/HW weighting that is used in the course and will give you a good idea of how the HW score is helping or hurting you. I went ahead and dropped the two lowest HW scores. At the end of the term, these two will be back 'in the mix' and I will drop the two lowest of all the HW scores. Please don't hesitate to ask if you have questions :)

Thanks!

Dr. Criss
